lopic o Frecambrian placer gold deposits. Witnetersrand, South Africa 2. The Witnesters rand 1, 2,500 - 4,500 m 3. As rivers flow across Sea begins to retreats layer of sediments is mountain face, which are deposited in the Creating a coastal plain made up of metamorphised along which mountain mefic /althoratic volcanic Withaters and Sea, rivers flow into the sequences called greenstone torming the sea. belts, river erosion curries West Rand Group mountain sediments towards deltas hear the sea. Heavy sediments are deposited at these delfas. these sediments include cubbles, wrantum, iron, pyrite, and gold. Such a stream deposit of valuable minerals is called a placer deposit.

Scanned with CamScanner

Jacob Hreshchyshyh